

JUDE VACLAVIK BIOGRAPHY

Jude Vaclavik is known for creating dynamic and kinetic works. His music has been commissioned by the New York Philharmonic, Lubbock Symphony Orchestra, New York Youth Symphony, New York City Ballet's Choreographic Institute, New Juilliard Ensemble, and numerous universities and conservatories such as the Eastman School of Music, New England Conservatory, University of Michigan, University of North Texas, University of Southern California, among others. His works have been performed by leading artists at major venues across the United States including Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, and the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and have been recognized by the American Academy of Arts and Letters and ASCAP.

Parallel to his composing, Vaclavik serves as the Director of U.S. Classical Publishing and Promotion at G. Ricordi & Co., New York, Universal Music Publishing Classics & Screen. He began his publishing career at Boosey & Hawkes, and has also held positions at Houston Grand Opera, The Juilliard School, and Utah State University.

A native of Houston, Texas, Vaclavik holds a Doctor of Musical Arts in Music Composition from The Juilliard School where he also earned his bachelor's and master's degrees, studying with Christopher Rouse and John Corigliano. He lives with his wife and two children.

[updated Sept 2021, JV]